

WAIVER CRITERIA UNDER SEC. 938.18(5)

(a) personality of the juvenile, including:

(1) mental illness or developmental disability

(2) the juvenile's physical and mental maturity

(3) the juvenile's pattern of living

(4) prior treatment history

(5) apparent potential for responding to future treatment

(am) prior record of the juvenile, including:

(1) whether the court had previously waived its jurisdiction

(2) previously convicted following a waiver/ previously found delinquent

(3) did previous conviction/ delinquency involve the infliction of serious bodily injury

(4) the child's motives and attitudes

(5) prior offenses

(b) the type and seriousness of the offense, including:

(1) whether it was against persons or property

(2) committed in a violent, aggressive, premeditated or willful manner

(c) adequacy and suitability of facilities, services and procedures available for treatment of the juvenile and protection of the public in the juvenile system and the suitability of the juvenile for placement in the serious juvenile offender program

(d) desirability of a trial and disposition in one court